Feel free to steal one of these options for a Scene to Establish. Think about what you want for your character!

Your character and someone else's in a booth as one of you is being interviewed for a job here.

Your character and someone else's in the walk-in cooler. What is that smell?

Your character and two others preparing a revenge meal for a customer. What did they do to you?

The Sunday brunch rush, all hands on deck, orders are piling up. Whose fault is it?
