DICKERSON

KICKERS

Feel free to steal one of these options for a Scene to Establish. Think about what you want for your character!

Your character and someone else's have a deeply odd interaction. Where are you, and what's so strange about it?

Someone rises to speak at the homeowners association meeting, and their words are a rallying cry. What do they want?

Your character and someone else's quietly check to see if you both saw what you think you saw. What do you think you saw?

Someone new in the neighborhood is breaking all the rules and getting away with it. Your character and someone else's confront them.
