

CHARTERHALL UNIVERSITY

"Charterhall University houses the finest minds in Daskvol. We are not the privileged brats of Whitecrown Academy, handed a degree and Leviathan Hunter simply for inheriting the name Strangford. We are the experts of jurisprudence, alchemy, electro-engineering, and spectrology. We are the future!"

—UNA FARROS, SPARKWRIGHT TOWER CHAIR

The Noble Order of Crows, or the NOC, is an institution which claims its origins date back to the Emperor's gift of Deathseaker Crows to Bellweather Crematorium in year 492. They are a benefit society pledged to elevate the status of their members and of the Daskvol Devil Hunters.

Membership is by invitation only, and while many would and have killed for the opportunity, you're lofty status has become an anchor that will drag you to the depths of the void see if you don't rid your self of it.
