THE PITCH

In the perfect neighbourhood, four imperfect people are unsatisfied with the official explanations and decide to investigate. Are they crazy? Or more sane than you and I? Who is watching?

INSPIRATIONS

Twin Peaks, X Files, The Lone Gunmen

Hey stranger. You're not from around these parts, are ya? Well, that's ok. Folks around here are mighty accommodating, bless 'em. Give you the shirt off their back.

But there are secrets in this town. Some new. Some old. Some really, really old. My suggestion? Don't ask questions. You may not like the answers. You don't want to end up like... well... best not to talk about her.

None of your big-city learning amount to squat here. So keep your head down.. and enjoy the scenery...

She turns up, debriefs everyone and then leaves.
